

Lico

PROTAGONIST

30, works as an account manager.

Sub-healthy.

Has a drinking habit but wishes to control.

Helen

FAMILY

28, works in a securities firm, married to Lico.

Healthy.

Concerned about Lico's health.

Tim

WORK

47, is a major client of Lico.

Sub-healthy.

Likes to negotiate over wine.

Alex

MOOD

30, works in the FMCG industry. A friend of Lico.

Healthy.

Aversion to alcohol culture.

Ethen

SOCIAL

24, new in work place, a colleague of Lico.

Healthy.

Has a high economic burden.

Laura

SOCIAL

45, a community doctor by profession.

Healthy.

Hate patients who are irresponsible with their health.

Lico went to a friend's party. They all drank and enjoyed themselves, but Lico couldn't hold his/her liquor. A friend said, "Come on, what fun it is to drink."

- A. Lico stopped drinking. "Sorry friends, I'm not feeling well today, I won't drink."
- B. Lico couldn't resist the enthusiasm of his/her friends, "Okay, one last drink, to our friendship."
- C. Lico felt that it was rare to have a drink with them, so it was okay to get drunk.

I

At a work dinner, Lico resented his/her co-workers toasting the leaders. Ethen asked Lico, "why don't you go and toast the leaders? Don't be out of touch."

- A. Lico felt it would be beneficial to a good relationship with the leader, so Lico toasted the leader one by one.
- B. Lico didn't initiate toasts, but to avoid embarrassment, he/she had a few drinks while colleagues toast.
- C. Lico believed that job promotions are not earned by drinking and excuses himself/herself.

II

Lico gets off work and finds Alex waiting for him/her. Alex hugs Lico, "I'm in a terrible mood, come have a drink" Lico thinks of the promise to have dinner with Helen.

- A. Lico accompanies Alex to get drunk to relieve Alex's worries and they all get drunk.
- B. Lico invites Alex to join for dinner at his/her house, which Lico thinks will be the best of both worlds.
- C. Lico refuses Alex's offer to drink for the sake of health, saying that they can do something else to have fun.

III

Lico is hosting a big client, Tim, and Lico has to win a big order, knowing that a cocktail party is inevitable.

- A. Lico attends the cocktail party and drinks a lot with the client.
- B. Lico asks colleague, Ethen, to attend the cocktail party. Lico takes credit for making the order.
- C. Lico declines the management's offer to buy the client a drink and politely expresses that he/she can get the client's order by his/her business ability.

IV

Lico's father was an alcoholic and he had a very severe alcoholic fatty liver disease. But he still has to attend his friend's drinking parties.

- A. Lico persuaded his/her father to stop drinking and prevented him from going to the party.
- B. Lico quietly contacted some of his/her father's friends and asked them to stop asking his/her father to drink with them, and thanked them finally.
- C. Lico respects father's choice and not to stop him.

V

Lico goes to the market and finds that wine is on sale, but discount is available with purchase of three cases. Lico hesitates, as he/she usually buys little. Helen objects.

- A. Lico decides to buy three cases and promises Helen that he/she will not drink them all in a short time.
- B. Lico acknowledges Helen's concern and purchases only four bottles.
- C. Lico does not want to argue with Helen and decides to make a separate trip to the market to buy three cases of wine.

VI

During a medical exam, Lico discovered his/her liver had suffered alcohol-related damage. Lico told this to Alex, but Alex said, "You're making a big deal out of it."

- A. Lico thought Alex was overdoing it and didn't want to party with Alex and canceled the promised party.
- B. Lico felt a little embarrassed and smiled, saying, "It's just a matter of drinking less alcohol."
- C. Lico found an excuse not to go to the next party, not wanting to drink too much.

VII

Today, Lico went through the house and found only half a bottle of wine left.

- A. Lico went to the market to buy some wine to stock up at home - for the guests who would be arriving later.
- B. Lico found a movie and drank the half bottle of wine while watching it.
- C. Remembering the last time he /she had a drink at home with friends, Helen was angry, Lico planned to hide the wine and drink it alone.

VIII

Lico has not been promoted for a long time. Alex suggests that Lico should do his/her job well and that the leader would recognize his/her efforts.

- A. Lico thinks that he/she has been working hard but has no chance of promotion and wants to change jobs.
- B. Lico figures that it is too risky to change jobs, so he/she follows Alex's advice and continues to work hard in the company.
- C. Lico thinks Alex can't understand his/her frustration and continues to drink heavily.

IX

Lico and Helen had recently made plans to conceive a new child, but there is a financial pressure. Lico's latest client, Tim, is a heavy drinker.

- A. Lico doesn't think it's necessary to cater to clients' preferences to get an order, as drinking is hazardous to health.
- B. Lico thinks it's hard to have it both ways and drinks a lot with Tim.
- C. Lico can't afford to drink too much and asks Ethen to come along - so they can split the commission after the order is placed.

X

Recently, Lico's drinking has increased considerably, and Helen is concerned about Lico's health and advises him/her to drink less.

- A. Lico thinks that Helen doesn't understand him/her and Lico drinks to give the family a better life. So Lico argues with Helen.
- B. Lico thinks drinking is not a problem. But Lico didn't want to upset Helen, so he/she uses other reasons for drinking to put it off.
- C. Lico cut down on drinking to reassure Helen.

XI

During a follow-up visit, Lico discovered that his/her alcoholic liver damage had worsened. Dr. Laura advised Lico to stop drinking.

- A. Lico thinks it is necessary to reduce the amount of alcohol he/she drinks, but drinking in moderation does not harm health and there is no need to stop drinking.
- B. Lico doesn't think he/she is drinking a lot of alcohol and has Laura prescribed more medication will be enough.
- C. Lico is willing to try to stop drinking.

XII